

Mothers of Intention

Biographies

MOTHERS OF INTENTION, have been together for almost 10 years and are a Celtic inspired four piece band with vocals, guitars, fiddle, whistles and Bodran drum. The repertoire is extensive including a vibrant mix of Celtic and Folk inspired covers, traditional, original songs sung in exquisite three part harmony. Also, trad and original tunes jigs and reels which are fiery haunting and soothing. An electric mix makes the performance exciting and memorable.

MOTHERS OF INTENTION released their second album WATERSONG in 2007 and subsequently won the award for BEST WORLD/FOLK tune at the MUSICOZ awards for TRAVELLING SONG! With an original Artwork as the cover, painted by Penny, Watersong is a wonderful depiction and expression of their music and journey.

MOTHERS OF INTENTION are very popular and are regularly booked at most Folkfestivals, Special events, Markets, Fairs and Corporate Events. With a warm and engaging presence on stage, the music is appealing to a wide audience of all ages. MOTHERS OF INTENTION can adjust the repertoire to suit any occasion making every concert a memorable event.

Reviews

Rosie was interviewed by Richard Adey on Life Matters ABC Radio National Tues 22nd May 2007 and the song The Tiniest Part was played. We have had lots of emails and beautiful words from the listeners.

"Hi Rosie, I heard you on radio national the other day & loved it, just now a customer was asking about you as well." - Dave

"I...writing .....to tell you how beautifully moving was your song this morning on radio national. The preceding story on the programme was particularly harrowing, and then this ethereal music came on which had an effect which was practically divine. Thank you so much for making that music"

"I had tears of joy and beauty streaming down my face as I heard your beautiful, pure voice singing the Tiniest Part..."
