With their trademark sweet 3 part harmony, mesmerising guitar, fiery and soulful fiddle and haunting whistles, the MOTHERS had an outstanding 2007/2008 with the release of their second album WATERSONG. Travelling song subsequently winning the BEST World/Folk tune at the MUSICOZ awards.

Praise and acclaim have followed with MOI appearing at the National Folk Festival Canberra, Turning Wave Festival Gundagai, Illawarra Folk Festival and St albans Folk Festivals.

Mothers of Intentions music has a timeless texture which engages the audience of all ages. From soulful trad and original ballads to fiery dance tunes and slow airs. Rosie McDonalds voice , haunting and expressive, demands attention as you immerse yourself into the lyrics of the songs. Penny and Tony's vocals enhance her pure voice with musical colour.

Tony's has the ability to capture the audience with his passionate and fiery fiddle and Lainey's ethereal whistle and recorder playing results in the unmistakable MOTHERS sound. Their interesting approach to arrangements also makes the performance memorable and exciting.

The MOTHERS OF INTENTION also offer a FOLK KARIOKE section which allows singers of all standards to join them on stage and sing with their own 'personal' band. With and extensive song list to chose from. KARIFOLKIE has proved very popular to people of all ages especially at the major Folk festivals including the National Folk Festival, Canberra.

With their extensive repertoire of trad, contemporary, original songs and tunes MOTHERS OF INTENTION are in great demand, continuing to perform to sellout and appreciative audiences at the major festivals in MSW and Canberra as well as clubs, markets. Fairs and private functions.
